ELIGIBILITY POLICY FOR GRADUATE RESEARCH POSITIONS

All students appointed into graduation research positions (Dean's Scholars, GRAs and GRSs) must abide by the following policy regarding outside employment:

Dean's Scholars: Can only work up to 19 hours outside Dean's Scholar appointment. No exceptions.

GRAs: Can only work up to 19 hours outside GRA appointment. No exceptions.

GRSs (10-hour positions): May work 20+ hours outside GRS appointment.

GRSs (20-hour positions): Can only work up to 19 hours outside GRA appointment. No exceptions.

Combination GRA/GRS positions: Can only work up to 19 hours outside appointments. No exceptions.

POLICIES GOVERNING TUITION BENEFITS FOR ALL GRADUATE RESEARCH POSITIONS

To be eligible for tuition benefits, all Dean's Scholars, GRAs and GRSs must maintain satisfactory academic progress (3.5 GPA).

CEHD tuition benefits are not available to non-CEHD students.

Tuition benefits should be treated as income for tax purposes. The U.S. Government has a separate and distinct set of laws and regulations for taxing non-resident aliens.

Eligibility is not contingent on financial need, degree program or year in program.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES GOVERNING TUITION WAIVERS FOR DEAN'S SCHOLARS AND GRAs:

To be eligible for a tuition waiver, all Dean's Scholars and full-time GRAs must be registered for a minimum of six credit hours each semester* and part-time GRAs must be registered for a minimum of nine credit hours each semester* and earn at least $4000 during the appointment period.

* Exception: Students who need fewer credits than the minimum credit-hour requirement to complete their degree programs and graduate.

Tuition waivers are not available to Dean's Scholars and GRAs if the student receives tuition waivers from other sources. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the CEHD Director of Human Resources if another source of tuition waiver funding is available.

Tuition waiver eligibility requirements are subject to University policy changes during the academic year.
